

INTIMATE STORIES, CHALLENGING HISTORIES

2019 Biennial Conference of Oral History Australia

Presented in partnership with the State Library of Queensland

10-13 October 2019, State Library of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia

Bursaries for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Oral Historians

In recognition of 2019 as the United Nations Year of Indigenous Languages, Oral History Australia (OHA) is pleased to announce that two bursaries of up to $750 each may be awarded to Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander oral historians presenting a paper at the 2019 Biennial Oral History Australia Conference, 'Intimate Stories, Challenging Histories', 10-13 October 2019 in Brisbane.

Eligibility

The bursary is only available to Aboriginals & Torres Strait Islanders.

Applicants must:

- be undertaking a project that involves oral history
- attend the 2019 Biennial Oral History Australia Conference in Brisbane, and
- be the presenter of a paper accepted for presentation at the conference.

Eligible applications will be assessed on the contribution of the applicant's presentation to oral history, and the value of OHA conference participation for the applicant.

How to apply

Applications must be submitted on the attached form by 15 May 2019.

Please send your application by email:

- with the subject heading 'OHA Conference bursary 2019'
- to alistair.thomson@monash.edu
- by the closing date of 15 May 2019.

Please also ask one referee who knows your work to send a short reference about your oral history work to alistair.thomson@monash.edu by the closing date of 15 May 2019.

Note: A subcommittee appointed by OHA will judge the entries. Successful applicants will be advised by Friday 31 May 2019.
